The Court issued an order directing the parties to file redacted public versions of their wiretap suppression pleadings that were filed in this case.¹ (Docket No. 941). The United States hereby publicly files its pleadings and exhibits with the redactions that were specifically ordered by this Court,

¹ The United States regrettably files this response after the Court's September 18 deadline, as undersigned counsel, who has exclusively been handling this particular issue for the United States, was unexpectedly on sick leave on September 17 and September 18. Counsel begs the Court's forgiveness for the delay.

1 with one exception. Specifically, in its order, the Court instructed the United States to redact line 16 at 2 page 6 of its opposition motion, because that line “includes the name of an unindicted party.” However,
3 line 16 at page 6 of the United States’ opposition appears to contain no names of any unindicted parties.
4 Accordingly, the United States has left line 16 at page 6 unredacted.
